

COLTONIAN '74

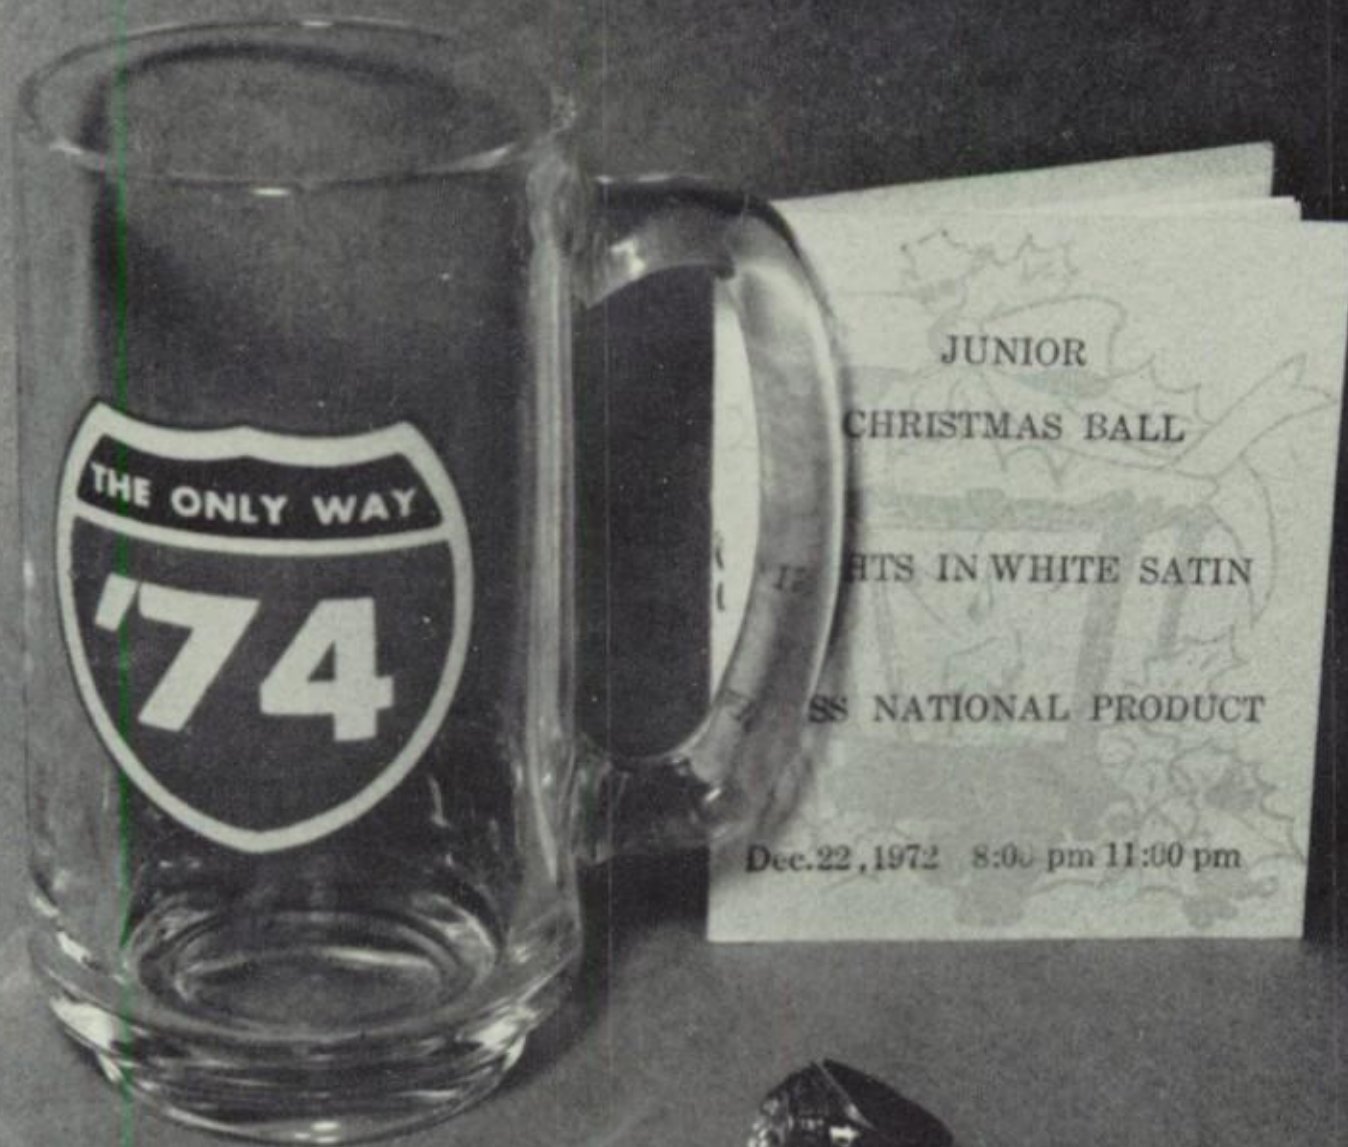

Ms. C. Skiff

In years to come, as I look back, how will I remember? Will I remember the years as they were or as I had wished them to be? Will I remember only the happy times or the disappointments we also shared?

Did I express myself to the fullest extent and yet keep an open mind which welcomed the thoughts and opinions of others? Did I utilize the days and the months to form lasting friendships with others? Or will the experiences we shared be lost forever with the closing of a book, never to be of benefit to me in a more serious later life?

Will I recall the good times of shared laughter that came from such simple things as a soccer game or a spaghetti dinner? Will I remember selling magazines, getting our class rings or the Christmas Ball?

Was I alone or was I a real part of them?

What will I remember?

"Those Were the Days"

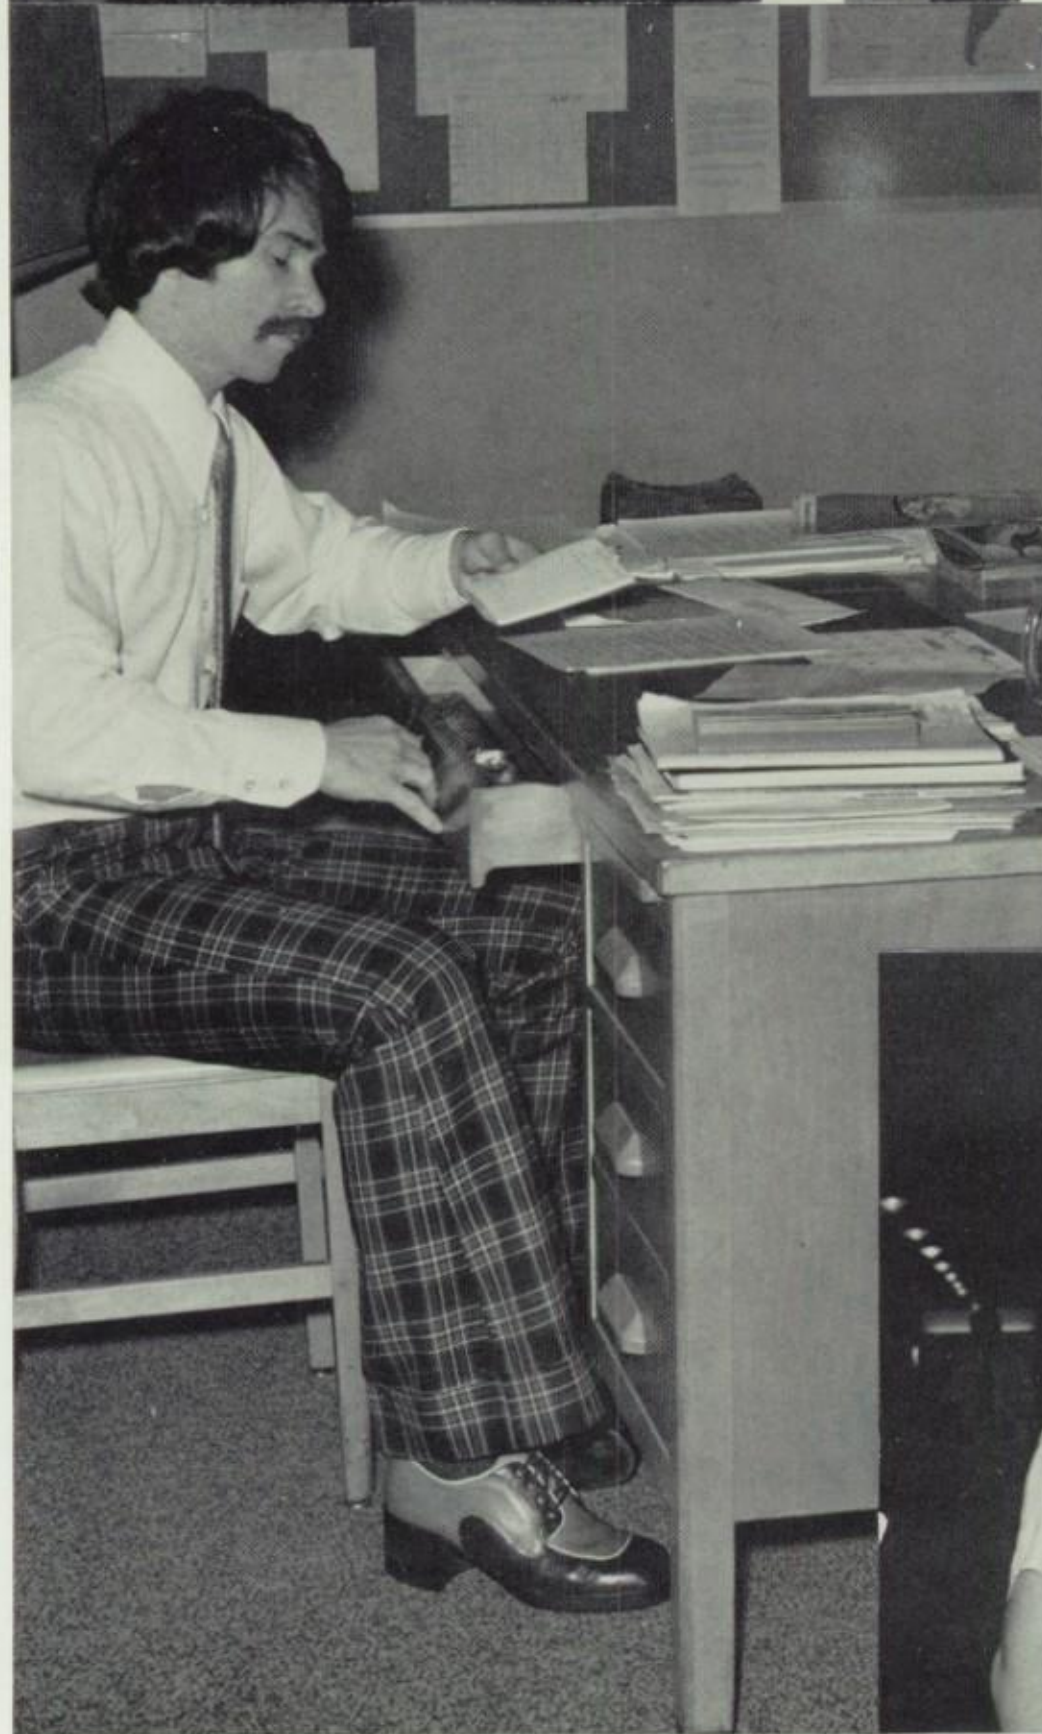

To try to write a worthy dedication to an individual like you, Mr. Tompkins, is a task which is nearly impossible. You've been a teacher and advisor to all of us, but most of all you've been our friend. A friend that was always there when we had a problem or when we just wanted a room to sit in and someone to talk to. You acted as our advisor in our Junior year and got us through Trig and our Christmas Ball in a far calmer state than most of us were. In dedicating our yearbook to you, Mr. Tompkins, we can't even begin to say what we feel, but most of all we just want to say we'll miss you and thanks for everything.

The Class of 1974

Administration and Faculty

Supervising Principal; Mr. Sheeran

In one of her lesser poems, Edna St. Vincent Millay wrote the lines, "I'll die but that's all I'll do for death". I've always thought these words concisely expressed a fine philosophy of life, one that says much by saying little. One that links all evils under one label. One that shows acceptance and yet determination to try to better conditions, to lessen evils, to improve mankind's lot. These things would be lofty goals for any generation. Perhaps they will be absolute essentials for your generation if it is to avoid Armageddon!

I hope all of you leave CPCS with the essential base experience to pursue these goals individually, collectively, and successfully.

Elementary Principal; Mrs. O'Gorman

Dear Seniors,

Each of you is dear to my heart.

My wish is that your aspirations lead you as high as Sputnik - which was still in the planning when you were launched. I know you can accomplish what you really want to do.

My one bit of advice would be -
Be kind to each other.

Love,
Mrs. O'Gorman

Tammy D. Thomas
in Memory of a Friend

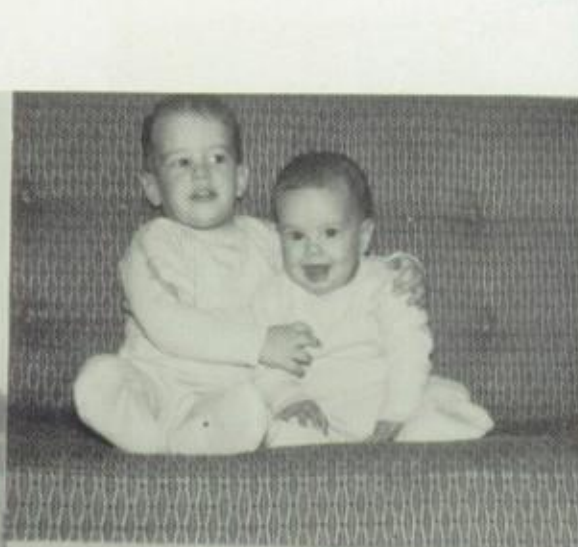

We always find death hard to cope with, but it always seems more difficult when death takes the life of a child. We shall always remember the wonderful value Tammy put on life and living.

To her parents, we can truly say that although Tammy's life was very short, she made us all realize just how precious a gift life is.

Seniors

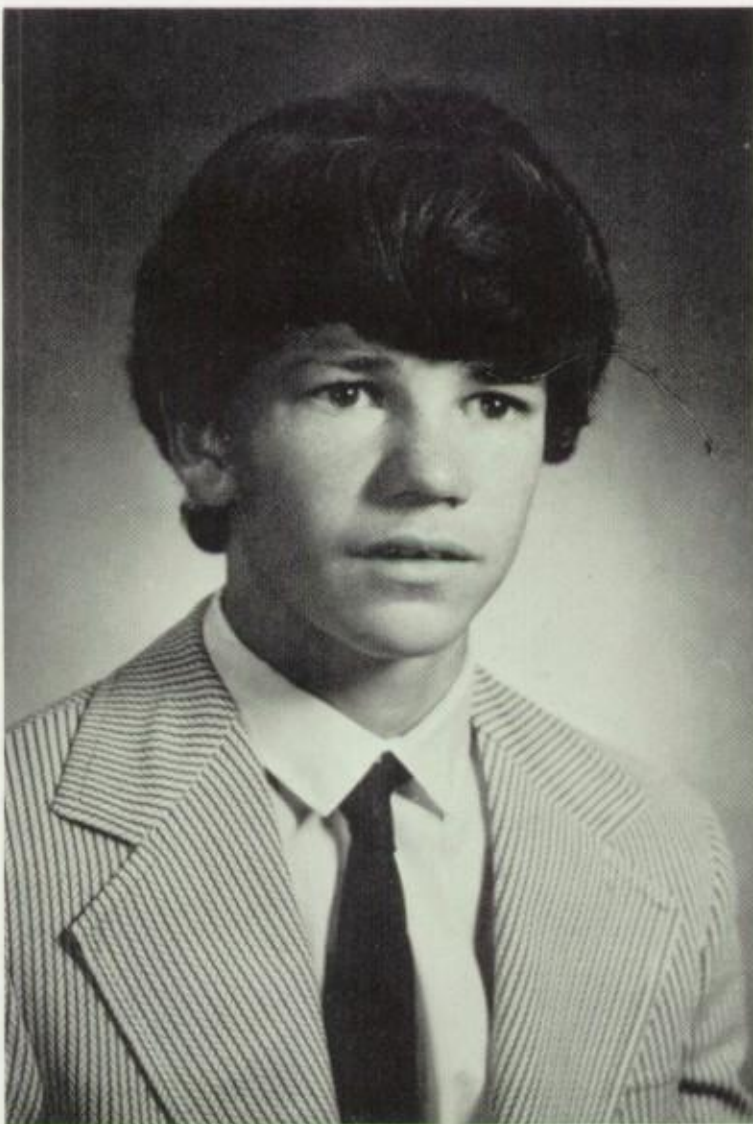

Those were the days my friend
We thought they'd never end
We sang and danced forever and a day,
We live the life we choose
We fight and never lose
For we were young and sure to have our way.

Last Will and Testament

We, the Senior Class of 1974, being of clear mind and sober body, do hereby collectively and individually bequeath to:

The Freshmen Class; All the fun we had dissecting frogs, measuring triangles and learning to accept that there were two classes above us, but one below.

The Sophomore Class; The trials and tribulations of ordering class rings and working on the play. May you also enjoy that precious Sr. Trip, Heaven knows you'll have the money, be it begged, borrowed or stolen.

The Junior Class; All the fun of your Senior Year and knowing that there are three classes below you and Seniors are ALWAYS supreme. Long live our rowdy fifth periods and faithfulness to The Timber.

MARY AUSTIN leaves her modest Olympic skills to Mrs. Hepburn.

ARLENE BOYCE leaves her quiet nature to Sherry Remington.

ED BOYCE leaves his study hall seat to anybody who wants to sit a full period with Mr. Filkins.

LAURIE BRADLEY leaves all of the Parishville guys, except John, to any girls who can stand 14 consecutive weekends at the Timber.

BONNIE BROWN leaves the SATC Nursing Course to anyone who is crazy enough to take it.

"Our Guessing Game:"

Walking in the sand
Thinking of things adventures in my mind
Of tall ships that sail
Across the oceans wide
They won't wait for me
See how they glide away so gracefully
And with tomorrow what will become of me
They leave me so much to explain
That's the start of our guessing game.

There are times when I think I've found the truth
There are times when I know that I'm wrong
And the days when I try to hide my fears
Bless the days when I'm feeling strong
Bless the days when I'm feeling strong.

Wonder why we try so hard
Wonder why we try at all
You wonder why the world is turning around
When in the end it won't matter at all.

Standing in the town
Looking at people counting their frowns
Unhappy faces hurrying around
So blind they cannot see
All of these things
The way life ought to be
And with tomorrow what will they make of me
It leaves me so much to explain.
That's the start of our guessing game.

Through the door there came familiar laughter,
I saw your face and heard you call my name.
Oh my friends we're older but no wiser
For in our hearts the dreams are still the same.
